November 27, 2010

We are pleased to inform you that you have set a new national record
“LONGEST LETTER TO GOD”

The details of your achievement have been entered into our record book as follows:

Brahma Kumaris youth wing organized a function called 'Letter to God' at Gujarat University on March 28, 2010 as a part of celebration of their silver jubilee year, Gujarat University's diamond jubilee year and 600 years of establishment of Ahmedabad city. There was a paper roll for writing letters was spread on 525 feet long platform made of 275 tables and the space of 12” x 18” (paper size 20 inches, left 2 inches of lower printed frame) was provided to each participant for writing a letter. Total length of the paper measured was 866.15 meters with a width of 20 inches and 2800 students and citizens participated in letter writing within a time span of three hours.

Once again welcome to the very selected brand of national record holders!

Yours Sincerely,
Rinki Tomar,
(Head of Records Management Team)
